“YIM 4” Project organizes the “Dream Weaving Camp” for youngsters nationwide to enhance their skills on writing interesting social development projects

The “Young Innovation Marketplace 4” project or “YIM 4” recently organized the “Dream Weaving” camp for youths nationwide whose social development projects passed the primary selection to seek support from the “YIM 4”. The “Dream Weaving” camp was aimed to enhance youngster’s knowledge and capability on creating interesting social projects and materially analyzing social problems so that they can further plan and implement their own social projects efficiently.

“Dream Weaving” camp, is one of various activities under the “YIM 4” project, initiated and implemented by YIM group with the support from Banpu Public Company Limited. “YIM 4” is now on the final selection of interesting and feasible social projects from youths to receive support from the project. The winning social development projects are expected to be announced by middle of June.
