Articles of Association of the Company relating to the Shareholders' Meeting

Shareholders' Meeting, Proxy and Voting

- (31) The Board of Directors shall call an annual general meeting of shareholders within four months of the last day of the Company's accounting year. The Board of Directors shall send the documents stipulated by the law to all shareholders together with written notice summoning the annual general meeting.

Meeting of shareholders other than the aforesaid shall be called extra-ordinary general meeting of shareholders, which may be called at any time as it is deemed appropriate. Shareholders representing more than one-fifth of the shares distributed, or no less than twenty-five shareholders representing no less than one-tenth of the total shares distributed, may jointly submit a written notice, requesting the Board of Directors to summon an extra-ordinary meeting at any time, provided that reason for calling such a meeting are given in the said notice. In this case, the Board of Directors shall hold a meeting within one month as of the date the said notice is received.

- (32) In calling a meeting, the Board of Directors shall send a written notice of the summoning of the meeting to shareholders and the Registrar specifying the venue, date, and time of the meeting, together with the agenda and the matters to be proposed to the Meeting, with sufficient details. It shall clearly specify whether the matters proposed will be for acknowledgement, approval or consideration, whichever is the case, as well as the Directors' comments on the said matters. The said notice shall be sent at least seven days prior to the date of the meeting, and the summoning of the said meeting shall also be publicized in newspapers for three consecutive days, at least three days before the date of the meeting.

The shareholders meeting shall be held at a place where the Head Office or a branch office located or in any near-by province or at any venue decided by the Chairman or his appointed person.

- (33) The Chairman is empowered to issue meeting rules for the purpose of conducting the meetings in order and ensuring equitable treatment to all shareholders.
- (34) In a general shareholders meeting, in order to form a quorum at least twenty-five shareholders or proxies (if any) or at least half of all shareholders, and representing at least one-thirds of shares distributed shall be required.
- (35) In any shareholders meeting, if it is one hour past the scheduled time and the quorum as stipulated herein is not yet formed, and if the said meeting has been called upon the request of shareholders, such meeting shall be canceled. If the said meeting has not been called upon the request of shareholders, another meeting shall be called, and another notice summoning a meeting shall be sent to shareholders no less than 7 days prior to the date of the meeting. For the later meeting, a quorum is not required.
- (36) The Chairman of the Board of Directors shall be the Chairman of the shareholders meetings.

In the event that the Chairman is absent or cannot perform his duty, the Vice-Chairman, if there is one, shall be the Chairman of the meeting. If there is not a Vice-Chairman, or if the Vice-Chairman cannot perform his duty, the shareholders present shall nominate one of the shareholders to preside at the meeting.

- (37) The Chairman of the general meetings shall have the duty to ensure that the meeting is conducted in accordance with the order on the agenda in the notice summoning the meeting, unless a resolution is passed, with two-thirds of the votes of shareholders present, to rearrange the order of the items on the agenda.
- (38) Any shareholder may attend and vote by proxy, provided the proxy submits the instrument of appointment to the Chairman of the Board, or Chairman of the meeting or his appointed person at the venue of the meeting before attending the meeting.
- (39) By any means of voting, each share shall carry one vote. Any shareholder having a special interest on the matter being resolved shall have no right to cast a vote on that matter, except in the event of voting to elect Directors.
- (40) Unless otherwise provided by the Public Limited Company Act, resolutions of the shareholders meetings shall be passed in the following manners:-
- (1) In ordinary cases, with the majority of votes of the shareholders present and casting their votes.
In case of a tie, the Chairman of the meeting shall cast another vote as a final decision.
