

IPST and Banpu Provide the Environmental Science Study Aid “GLOBE Animation” VCD to the Public with Free of Charge

The Institute for the Promotion of Teaching Science and Technology (IPST) in collaboration with Banpu Public Company Limited provide the “GLOBE Animation” VCD, a learning aid about surrounding natural science study for primary students, for free of charge to parents and interested persons nationwide. The VCD, including three stories - “The Soil Explorers”, “Shh! The Trees Are Sleeping”, and “It’s A Rainy, Rainy Day”, is narrated in Thai language with the English subtitle.

Additionally, IPST and Banpu have given these learning aid VCDs and storybooks, to the Office of Basic Education Commission (OBEC) used as the environmental science material for approximately 20,000 needy elementary schools under the OBEC nationwide and the Border Patrol Police Schools.

To get this valuable VCD, please contact Banpu’s Corporate Communications & Public Affairs Department Tel. 02-694-6646, Monday-Friday, 9.00 – 16.00 hrs. from now on.
