

Photo release

19 June 2008

Banpu and YIY introduce 8 youth's innovative social development projects receiving supports from "YIM 4" project

Bangkok - Banpu Public Company Limited together with YIY (Why I, Why) group recently announced 8 youth's innovative social development projects winning the supports from "Youth Innovation Marketplace 4" or "YIM4" project at the press conference, held at TK Park of Central World. The 8 projects initiated by youth groups based on their concept and interests will receive the supports from "YIM 4" throughout the implementation for a period of one year. These 8 projects are selected from 64 social development proposals submitted by youngsters nationwide to "YIM 4" early of this year.

Picture: Mrs. Udomlux Olarn (5th from the left), Senior Vice President – Corporate Communications and Public Affairs of Banpu Public Company Limited, a sole sponsor of "YIM 4" project and Ms.Krittaya Sreesunpagit (6th from the left) , Director of YIY group, a "YIM 4" project organizer, together with youngsters representing 8 social development projects winning the supports from "YIM 4" are lighting up the artificial dream fire, showing their readiness on implementing their social development projects, starting from the end of June.