

Banpu Employee Volunteers help build a basketball court and share laughter with children of Ban Maharaj

A group of over 100 Banpu management and employee volunteers, led by Mr. Chanin Vongkusolkrit, Chief Executive Officer of Banpu Public Company Limited, took part in “The 2nd Banpu Employee Volunteering” Project at The Maharaj Foundation Home for Boys, Rangsit Klong 5. The Banpu volunteers donated goods and funds to the Foundation, as well as built a basketball court, planted mango trees and shared laughter with more than 150 of the children of Ban Maharaj. Banpu intended for these activities to help improve the quality of life and enhance the energy and motivation of these disadvantaged children.

This activity is held as part of “The Banpu Employee Volunteering” Project, organized for the second consecutive year with the goal of encouraging Banpu employees’ to participate in social contribution activities for a betterment of society and the environment.
