

Banpu imports Chinese coaches to train its table tennis players for 2 consecutive years

12 October 2011: The Banpu Table Tennis Club (BTTC) brought two expert mainland Chinese coaches to train its players during 10 - 23 October 2011 at the Sports Building of Shinawatra University, Pathumthani. The extensive training is one of the key BTTC activities providing an opportunity for the athletes to learn through knowledge transfer and experience sharing from the experts. This will help heighten their skills to an international standard.
