Banpu Gives Cloth Masks Worth THB 720,000 to Teachers and Students in Remote Areas Nationwide

Banpu Public Company Limited was concerned about the risks during the reopening of schools, especially how to protect teachers and students from the risk of COVID-19 infection despite the government's strong preventive measures. The Company therefore handed over approximately 40,000 high-quality cloth masks, worth more than THB 720,000 to 151 schools nationwide, including the northern schools from Banpu Education for Sustainability project, the northeastern schools from Connex ED project, the schools aided by Banpu from Pabuk storm in 2019 in Nakhon Si Thammarat province and the schools from Banpu's Sponsorship for Schools in Southern Border Provinces project. These aforementioned schools continual gained the educational support from Banpu. The cloth mask donation aims at keeping educational personnel and students safe, enabling their learning and teaching activities to run smoothly.
