

Banpu Presents New Building for Ban Don Yai Nong Sano School in Nakhonratchasima

Banpu Public Company Limited, a leading energy company in Asia, presented a new school building, the “Banpu Oopatham”, to Ban Don Yai Nong Sano School in Dankhuntoed District, Nakhonratchasima Province. The presentation ceremony was attended by Mr. Jatuporn Boonradom (3rd from left), Director of Nakhonratchasima Primary Educational Service Area Office 5; Mr. Likit Suriyo (2nd from left), Director of the School, with representatives from Banpu Plc. who handed over the building, Ms. Udomlux Olarn (2nd from right), Head of Corporate Affairs; and Mr. Prach Chongkittisakul (3rd from right), Vice President – Energy Information & Analysis.

The new building, supported by Banpu Plc., will house the school's library, a computer learning center, and English language learning center for nearly 150 students. This project is in line with Banpu's corporate social responsibility principle to upgrade the quality of education while broadening Thai youth's learning opportunities and capabilities.

#