

Banpu Ranked on the Fortune Southeast Asia 500 for Two Consecutive Years

Banpu Public Company Limited, a versatile energy company, has been ranked on the Fortune Southeast Asia 500 for the two consecutive years. This ranking by Fortune magazine lists the 500 largest companies in Southeast Asia based on their revenues from the past fiscal year (2024). This recognition underscores Banpu's consistent ability to generate strong cash flow and manage its business with resilience amid external uncertainties.

Mr. Sinon Vongkusolkiet, Chief Executive Officer of Banpu Public Company Limited, said, "Energy demand continues to grow across many regions due to various factors—especially the rise of data centers. With a diverse energy portfolio spanning nine countries across the Asia-Pacific region, Banpu is well-positioned to leverage synergies and mutual support among its businesses. This enhances the Company's resilience in navigating challenges while unlocking new growth opportunities in an ever-changing environment. Being listed on the Fortune Southeast Asia 500 for the second year in a row reflects Banpu's ability to operate at an international standard and deliver long-term value to all stakeholders."

The Fortune Southeast Asia 500 is compiled by Fortune Magazine, one of the world's leading business publications. The list represents the top-performing companies across seven Southeast Asian countries — Thailand, Indonesia, Malaysia, Singapore, Vietnam, the Philippines, and Cambodia — that continue to make their mark on the region's economy.
