Banpu Shares Keys to Success in Indonesia at Indonesia Investment & Trade Forum 2025

Mr. Sinon Vongkusolkrit, Chief Executive Officer of Banpu Public Company Limited, joined the panel discussion at the Indonesia Investment & Trade Forum 2025, organized by Bangkok Bank in collaboration with Indonesia's Permata Bank. Banpu, having successfully operated in Indonesia, shared its investment experience in this key strategic country—one with strong potential for both economic growth and social development—and highlighted the Company's readiness to advance its future energy businesses.

During the discussion, Mr. Sinon pointed out that the Company sees great potential in Indonesia's energy resources and values business partnerships built on shared goals and mutual success. He also highlighted the continuous growth opportunities in Indonesia's energy market, driven by various key factors, particularly the country's rising energy demand and the advancement of technology and innovation.
