Banpu Joins ‘Techsauce Global Summit 2025’
Reinforcing Its Strategy for Sustainable Energy

Recently, Mr. Sinon Vongkusolkit, Chief Executive Officer of Banpu Public Company Limited, shared his vision at Techsauce Global Summit 2025 held at the Queen Sirikit National Convention Center under the theme “Energy Symphonics: A Sustainable Future Across Global Markets.” The address underscored Banpu’s role as a leading versatile energy company committed to advancing the realistic energy transition toward clean and sustainable solutions amid the ongoing Energy Supercycle — a period marked by surging global energy demand.

“Banpu’s Energy Symphonics strategy focuses on creating a balanced energy portfolio between traditional and sustainable energy solutions to support the growth of data center businesses in the AI era, which have emerged as one of the most powerful new energy consumers. Strengthening our businesses across nine countries under this strategy — covering, for example, natural gas and Carbon Capture and Sequestration (CCS); next-gen mining, where technology is applied to lower costs and reduce carbon dioxide emissions; and Battery Energy Storage Systems (BESS) that enhance the stability
