Banpu CFO Named Among Fortune Most Powerful Women in Asia for Second Consecutive Year

Ms. Arisara Sakulkarawek, Chief Financial Officer (CFO) of Banpu Public Company Limited, has been named one of Fortune Most Powerful Women in Asia 2025 by Fortune magazine, marking her second consecutive year on the list. The annual ranking recognizes 100 women who are transforming business across Asia's major industries with evaluating factors such as company scale and performance, career momentum, innovation, and contributions to social impact.

Since assuming the CFO role in 2019, Ms. Arisara has led Banpu's financial management across nine countries with strategic foresight. Her leadership has strengthened the Company's financial stability amid global market volatility, driven the transformation of its business portfolio, and accelerated Banpu's Energy Symphonics strategy, which aims to deliver sustainable energy and long-term value for shareholders and stakeholders.

Fortune is a global multi-platform media company. This year marks the third edition of Fortune Most Powerful Women Asia recognizes 100 female leaders across 14 markets, including mainland China, Singapore, Hong Kong SAR, India, Thailand, Japan, Australia, South Korea, Philippines, Vietnam, Malaysia, Taiwan, Indonesia, and Macau SAR.
