Banpu CEO Named among Prestige Magazine's High Flyers 2025

Mr. Sinon Vongkusolkit, Chief Executive Officer of Banpu Public Company Limited, has been named as one of the “300 High Flyers 2025” by Prestige Magazine, a leading lifestyle publication. This list highlights outstanding young achievers across diverse sectors, recognizing them as thought leaders, creators, changemakers, and pioneers who are driving positive impact for the country.

As a next-generation leader, Mr. Sinon has been driving the energy transition by advancing sustainable energy through the Energy Symphonics strategy. He also promotes the “Ideate and Get Real” behaviour among more than 6,000 employees across 9 countries, fostering continuous organizational development. Key achievements under his leadership include the adoption of technology and AI to reduce carbon emissions across business operations, as well as steering BKV Corporation (BKV) — Banpu’s subsidiary in natural gas and carbon capture, utilization and sequestration (CCUS) in the U.S., to be listed on the New York Stock Exchange (NYSE). These milestones reflect Banpu’s commitment to delivering clean and sustainable energy solutions.

The 300 High Flyers 2025 list by Prestige Magazine spotlights young leaders whose success and influence shape Thai society — spanning corporate business, entrepreneurship, technology, arts, culture, fashion, and more.
