Banpu CFO Named Distinguished Alumni of Thammasat Business School for Driving Organizational Strength and Social Impact

Ms. Arisara Sakulkarawek, Chief Financial Officer of Banpu Public Company Limited, received the TBSA AWARDS 2025 from Mr. Pichai Chunhavajira, Former Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Finance, as a Distinguished Alumni of Thammasat Business School. The award is presented to alumni who have achieved professional excellence, played a significant role in driving organizational progress, and contributed positively to society. The TBSA AWARDS are organized by the Thammasat Business School Alumni (TBSA) to honor alumni who serve as role models for the students of the School and inspire them to pursue their professions while contributing to society.

Since 2019, Ms. Arisara has led Banpu Group's financial strategy through global market volatility. Under her leadership, the Company has maintained strong financial stability while continuing to expand its investments and develop energy projects that promote sustainable energy across the Asia-Pacific region. In addition, Ms. Arisara has been named one of 100 Most Powerful Women in Asia by Fortune magazine for two consecutive years.
